Consumption is not real-time, over-consumption is a risk. In case of an «unreasonable usage» according to EU regulations N° 2015-2120, SeaSatCom can apply extra charges. In a roaming situation (communication from international), SeaSatCom depends on information given by operators and their delays of transmission. In this situation, Client is informed that alerts can be sent with delays. Client remains at any moment responsible for its usage, which he has to fulfil. Change plan on the 1st of next month with 10 days prior notice, subject to 49€ per change order.

T & Cs:

All services, subscriptions and plans are subject to a Service contract including the General service conditions, an Order and an advance airtime refunded at end of contract. Commitment starts on 1st of next month following activation date. Payments are by direct debit in advance. According to vessel registration, invoices may be issued without VAT. All prices indicated are in euros and exclude any taxes or fees that may apply. Billing period is per calendar month. Cancellation prior notice is 2 months before end of commitment. In case of early cancellation: all remaining months are due.

SeaSatCom's catalogue may be modified at any time and particularly if there are changes in economic conditions, exchange rates or operator policy.

GENERAL SERVICE CONDITIONS
ENGLISH TRANSLATION FOR INFORMATION

1. The Client contracts SeaSatCom to provide the Service specified under conditions in the order Form. The Service is provided via a mobile or satellite operator. The Service is available for terminals equipped for this Service and when they are located in the zone covered. The Service is provided to the Client or to the Client's authorized user, under his sole responsibility. The Client is not owner of the dialing numbers and SeaSatCom reserves the right to change any number, at its sole discretion, whenever necessary. The Service is activated upon condition of payment by the Client of an advance deposit equal to one month's average consumption and for a minimum of €50 for television services, €300 for cellular services, €200 for a satellite portable phone and €1,000 for a fixed satellite terminal. The deposit is refunded when the Contract terminate after full payment by the Client of any amount due and return of SIM cards if necessary.

2. QUALITY OF SERVICE: due to the technical nature and inherent complexity, particularly in the transmission of data, of a variety of different exploitation systems, SeaSatCom does not guarantee the transfer of calls by the system.

3. DURATION OF CONTRACT: The Contract is agreed for the duration specified for each service on the sales order form, from the date when the Service is activated plus the month in progress. The Service is renewable by tacit agreement for periods of the same duration. The Client may cancel the Service in writing to SeaSatCom headquarters at least forty-five (45) days before expiry of the current term. The Contract may not be transferred without written consent by SeaSatCom. SeaSatCom reserves the right to terminate the Contract at any time.

4. INVOICING AND PAYMENT: The Client accepts to pay the current applicable price for activation fees, monthly subscription, use of the Service, etc. as well as any applicable taxes. By signing this contract, the Client has taken note of the corresponding "Airtime" data sheet and therefore confirms that he understands the conditions, current rates, the geographical zone included in his subscription and any additional costs that may be incurred by over-consumption or by out-of-zone connections. Standard rates may be modified at any time by the operator. any modification will be automatically passed on to the Client at the time of contract renewal. SeaSatCom may modify its prices if economic conditions change and particularly if there are variations in exchange rates between the euro, US dollar or pound sterling. For each modification SeaSatCom will publish the updated catalog on its website www.seasatcom.com. The Client will also be informed by newsletter. SeaSatCom will not be held responsible, for non-receipt of this email if the Client has decided to unsubscribe or to be deleted from SeaSatCom's email distribution. Invoices are established on a monthly basis and are payable immediately upon receipt, all bank charges being payable by the Client. The subscription and options are invoiced the first day of the month and the communication time on the last day of the month. Invoices are sent electronically, and payment is by SEPA debit or by bank card. Payment through wire transfer and American Express card shall incur fees of €15 per invoice. Payment of any taxes, fees or other applicable expenses, is for the Client's account. Foreign credit cards are accepted only after full verification by the bank. Verification of foreign credit cards may delay execution of the Contract. SeaSatCom reserves the right to refuse payment by credit card. In case of late payment, remaining sums due from the Client shall be increased on basis of latest key interest rate published by the European Central Bank (Refi), plus 10 points, computation per calendar day, as well as a penalty fee for recovery charges of forty euros (€40), any month commenced shall be due. The Client shall reimburse all recovery and legal fees to SeaSatCom. SeaSatCom may temporarily or permanently disconnect the Client for late non-payment. The Client shall reimburse SeaSatCom the cost of any remaining satellite or mobile capacity for the period of commitment, by a single cash payment in full. If the Service is suspended for non-payment, terminal reactivation fees, in accordance with current rates, shall be payable by the Client.

5. RESPONSIBILITY: the service provided may be temporarily interrupted, delayed or limited. It is not available everywhere in the world. SeaSatCom does not guarantee a continuous service. Furthermore, SeaSatCom shall not be liable for any amount for interruption of service except in the case of gross negligence. SeaSatCom shall not be responsible for actions or omissions by third parties, equipment malfunctions, fortuitous actions, strikes, government actions or other causes beyond its reasonable control (force majeure). IMPLICIT GUARANTEES OF VALUE, USE AND PHYSICAL HEALTH FOR ANY SPECIAL USE ARE EXCLUDED. SeaSatCom is not responsible for the installation, operation, transmission quality or maintenance of the Client's equipment. If the Client's equipment is stolen, the Client remains responsible for any inherent costs until cancellation of the subscription. SeaSatCom is responsible for conforming to standards for installations which it supplies and installs. SeaSatCom shall not be held responsible for conforming to standards for installations delivered and/or installed by third parties, even if these installations are connected to SeaSatCom equipment. The Client must respect, and ensure respect of, instructions for use and shall address any claim for service and/or equipment malfunction solely to SeaSatCom. Third party intervention is subject to authorisation by SeaSatCom. SeaSatCom cannot be held responsible for damages caused to installations or damages caused by using equipment for a purpose to which it is not destined. SeaSatCom shall not be held responsible for malfunctions or deterioration caused by bad conditions of use or by use of unauthorized equipment configurations. SeaSatCom is in no way responsible for information distributed by the Client or eventual ministerial authorizations regarding the use of satellite or mobile transmission. For services performed at the Client's site by SeaSatCom staff or its sub-contractors, the Client shall take all measures to prevent accidents and ensure health safety according to current standards and law, as well as all relevant measures to ensure the execution of works. The Client shall notify SeaSatCom of the presence of any product used in surrounding air which may pose a health risk to SeaSatCom staff or its sub-contractors.

6. GENERAL TERMS: Client authorize SeaSatCom to use the name and picture of the vessel as reference on all communication supports. Any service provided is subject to SeaSatCom's general conditions of which the Client has been informed. The Client's conditions may not take precedence over the conditions described in this document. If one of the clauses of the General Conditions is declared null and void, that clause alone shall be deemed not written and all other clauses shall remain unaffected. Any modification, change or renunciation of the Service by the Client or by SeaSatCom shall be in writing for consideration by the other party. This Contract is subject to French law. Any disagreement arising between the parties shall fall under the exclusive authority of the court having jurisdiction over SeaSatCom.

These General Service Conditions are available at any time on SeaSatCom's website: www.seasatcom.com under the "Catalog".
